

SPECIAL INSTRUCTIONS

1. Doctors should be aware of consultation date and time without any failure
2. Should wear proper attire preferably with Apron
3. Should prescribe medicines with least side effects.
4. Patient should be explained about prescription clearly in local language.
5. Should explain about side effects of medicine verbally if necessary, ex: for T Metronidazole, patient should be told about metallic taste.
6. In case, Patient is having persistent symptoms inspite of following advice, should be referred to specialists.
7. Should explain about RED/Danger signs in relevant cases
 - a) Recurrent chest pain/Breathlessness on exertion in elderly pt
 - b) Bleeding episodes in Dengue fever.

8. Should assess need of Hospitalization/Day care if required and to direct them.

Ex:-a) Patient having BP >200 /120 mm of Hg needs monitoring for few hours in emergency.

b) Patients with signs of dehydration may need Intravenous fluid replacement

9. Should be cautious about drugs prescribing in Pregnancy/Lactation

10. Should not prescribe SCHEDULE X AND PSYCHOTROPIC DRUGS.